School of Business Standards of Behavior:

The mission of the School of Business at George Mason University is to create and deliver high-quality educational programs and research. Students, faculty, staff, and alumni who participate in these educational programs contribute to the well-being of society. High-quality educational programs require an environment of trust and mutual respect, free expression and inquiry, and a commitment to truth, excellence, and lifelong learning. Students, program participants, faculty, staff, and alumni accept these principles when they join the School of Business community. In doing so, they agree to abide by the following standards of behavior:

- Respect for the rights, differences, and dignity of others
- Honesty and integrity in dealing with all members of the community
- Accountability for personal behavior

Integrity is an essential ingredient of a successful learning community. Ethical standards of behavior help promote a safe and productive community environment, and ensure every member the opportunity to pursue excellence. School of Business can and should be a living model of these behavioral standards. To this end, community members have a personal responsibility to integrate these standards into every aspect of their experience at the School of Business. Through our personal commitment to these Community Standards of Behavior, we can create an environment in which all can achieve their full potential.

BUS 103: Developing Your Professional Skills: Foundational Elements
Honor Code Statement:

Honor System and Code: The Honor System and Code adopted by George Mason University will be enforced for this class: http://oai.gmu.edu/the-mason-honor-code/ You will sign a statement on the second day of class certifying that you have read the Code, have asked any questions, and have a complete understanding of all elements of the Code.

In your work on all written assignments, keep in mind that you may not present as your own the words the work or the opinions of someone else without proper acknowledgement. You also may not borrow the sequence of ideas, the arrangement of material, or the pattern of thought of someone else without proper acknowledgement. Please note: Faculty are obligated, without exception, to submit any Honor Code violations or suspected violations to the Honor Committee.

Attendance & Participation:

On time attendance in class is expected. If, for some reason you must miss class, you should contact a peer to make sure you do not fall further behind in readings/assignments. At various points in the course you may need to use electronic devices in class, please limit your use to course related topics. Other use may result in decreased participation points for the day/week.

Timely Submissions:

All assignments are due by their due date. If you are absent, please submit your assignment by its due date/time.

Formatting Guidelines:

Please follow each assignment’s guidelines for formatting. If unspecified, use single-spacing, left alignment, one-inch margins, 12-point font. To cite and reference professional or academic sources, please use APA style. Specific instructions for in-text citations and referencing are found in the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association, 6th Edition or at http://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/560/01/

Course Communication via Emails & GMU Email Account:

Email correspondence for this class should be considered professional correspondence. Use this opportunity to practice engaging in professional correspondence, including proper grammar and tone, complete sentences, correct spelling and capitalization, salutation and closing, etc. Generally, I will respond to your e-mails within 24-48 hrs., except on weekends or during travel. University rules preclude me from communicating with you through private email addresses. As such, please use your Mason email addresses for all course communication.

Peer Reviews, Collaborative Writing, and Group Work:

Students will engage in frequent small group activities during class time. During peer reviews, other students may be asked to read, review, and respond to your work. You will have the opportunity to evaluate your team members’ performances. This component of the class mirrors several professional workplace situations that require giving and receiving feedback, and this evaluation will count toward your individual participation grade.
