REQUIRED READING/TEXT:
Bodie, Kane and Marcus, Essentials of Investments, 10th edition

Textbook overheads and spreadsheets are posted on Blackboard.

COURSE DESCRIPTION:
An overview of investments with emphasis on the economy and financial assets. The topics include securities markets, portfolio theory, asset pricing, fixed-income, options and futures. An emphasis will be on real world aspects using Bloomberg.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:
This course is designed to provide the student with a broad, basic of investments. Students will be able to:
* Understand the investment environment globally, nationally and locally
* Define, discuss and interpret the fundamental concepts introduced in the course.
* Analyze and evaluate case studies or assignments.

STUDENT REQUIREMENTS:
The required TEXT will provide the basis for the major segments of the course.

EVALUATION AND GRADING:
Class participation: 10% Preparation, creativity, solution viability and presentation in answering questions on the required reading and case studies will be considered. Weekly assignments count as participation.

Midterm Exams: 1 @ 40% each. Final Exam: 50%
Exams will consist primarily of short analytical problems and short answer questions in order to measure breadth of knowledge and make sure the readings have been completed. Homework assignments are NOT graded, but the questions are often on the exams, so please do them.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY;
GMU is an Honor Code University; please see the University Catalog for a full description of the code and the honor committee process. The principle of academic integrity is taken very seriously and violations are treated gravely. Vigorous discussion and debate are encouraged in this course, with the firm expectation that all aspects of the class will be conducted with civility and respect for differing ideas, perspectives, and traditions. When in doubt (of any kind) please ask for guidance and clarification.

GMU EMAIL ACCOUNTS;
Students must activate their GMU email accounts to receive important University information, including messages related to this class.
